

WORKTECH 09 LONDON
24 November 2009

INTRODUCTION BY:

John de Lucy
Head of Estates & Facilities

Fire and Domestic Arrangements

Mobile phones

- All mobile mobile phones to be switched off while in the Auditorium please

Toilets

- Nearest ladies and gents toilets are in the foyer

Fire Arrangements

- Should you hear an Intermittent pulsing sound
 - indicates a fire incident in a remote part of the building
 - take no immediate action but prepare to evacuate if alarm changes (apart from anyone requiring assistance, who should start to evacuate at this stage)
- Should you hear the fire alarm (Continuous two-tone warble)
 - please evacuate using the nearest safe exit
 - proceed to the Piazza and wait until instructed before re-entering the building

The British Library at St Pancras

St Pancras front hall

King's Library, Café & Restaurant

WiFi Work Zone

St Pancras aerial photo

Centre for Conservation

Centre for Conservation – conservation studios

Boston Spa site

Boston Spa Masterplan

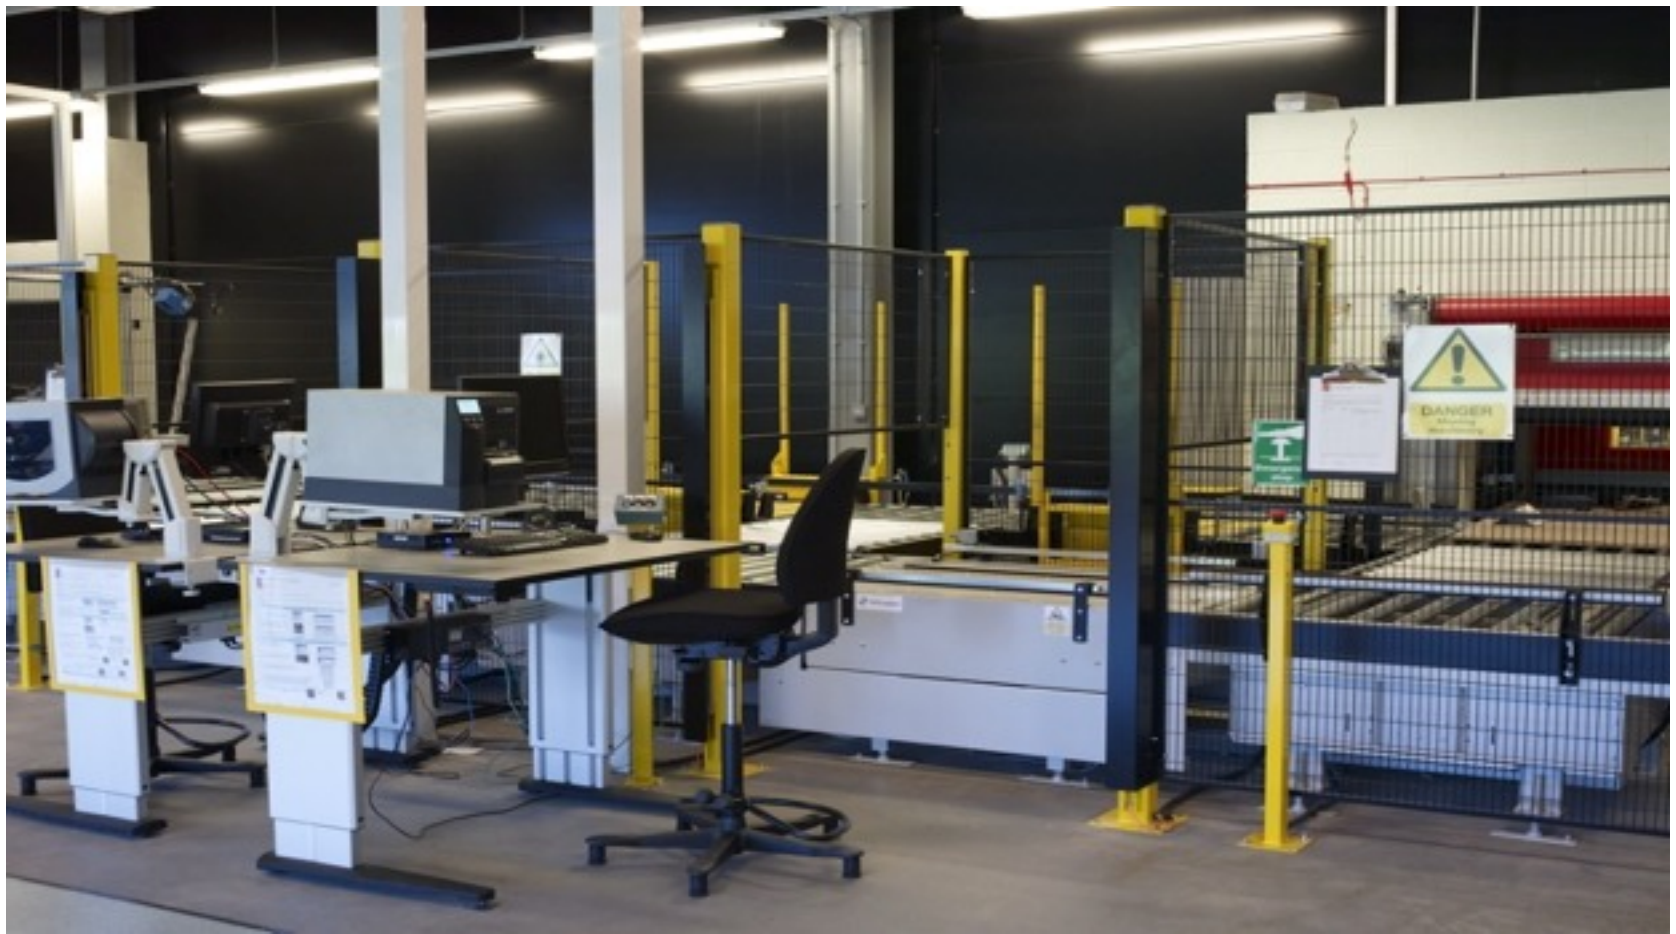

Additional Storage Building, Boston Spa

Additional Storage Building - high bay, high density racking

Additional Storage Building – picking station

Newspaper Library, Colindale

Holdings include

- Material from 300 BC to today's newspapers
- 310,000 manuscripts, from Jane Austen to James Joyce, Handel to The Beatles
- 49.5 million patents
- Over 4 million maps
- Over 260,000 journal titles
- Over 8 million philatelic items

Treasures include:

- Magna Carta
- Lindisfarne Gospels
- Leonardo da Vinci's Notebook
- The Times first edition from 18 March 1788
- The Beatles manuscripts
- Recording of Nelson Mandela's trial speech

Collection Storage

We receive a copy of every publication produced in the UK and Ireland

Currently, storage amounts to 750 km of shelving

3 million new items are incorporated every year requiring an additional 12km of shelving